

Baby's First Book

The goal of Baby's First Book is to emphasize the value of reading to children during the first five years of life.

In conjunction with the Warsaw Community Public Library, this program provides an ABC board book along with early childhood literacy information and local library information to families of each child born at Kosciusko Community Hospital.

Reading to preschool aged children promotes proper brain development for continued learning.