

Workplace Literacy Classes

In partnership with area companies, KLS can provide on-site instruction to employees who want to learn English or want to improve their grammar and writing skills. Employers are requested to pay the tutor for the Workplace Literacy Classes. This program allows employees to advance within the corporation.